

Location

The Institute for Internal Combustion Engines and Powertrain Systems is located in area L1 on “Lichtwiese” campus. This campus belongs to Darmstadt University of Technology and is based in the South-Eastern part of Darmstadt.

Offices can be found on the fourth floor (Northern side) of the building for mechanical engineering (L1|01, Otto-Berndt-Straße 2, formerly Petersenstraße 30). The building is easy to recognize due to the massive red gear statue in front of its main entrance.

Testbeds on the other hand are located in building L1|04 (Jovanka-Bontschits-Straße 11) on the Eastern side of the campus.

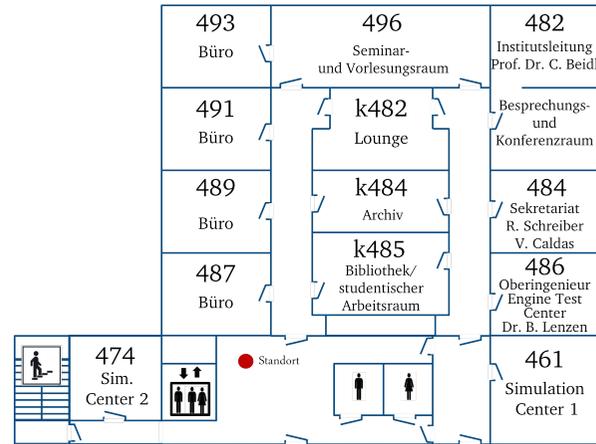

Parking areas are illustrated on the map below.

Please feel free to ask for further information in the institute’s administration (room 484).

Arrival

By Car

In order to come to Darmstadt, you can use free-way A5 (Frankfurt (Main) – Heidelberg/Basel) and A67 (Köln/Wiesbaden – Mannheim) as well as through road B3 (Langen – Bensheim) and B26 (Dieburg – Darmstadt). Follow the signs directed to the city center. There the sign TU-Lichtwiese will lead you directly to the campus. Attention: Some signs still use the old term TH-Lichtwiese.

By Train

ICE trains as well as IC, EC and interregional trains of the North-Southern public transportation system stop at Darmstadt Central Station. Regional train routes connect the city of Darmstadt with Frankfurt/Main – Heidelberg or Mannheim, Wiesbaden/Mainz – Aschaffenburg and Darmstadt Erbach or Eberbach (Odenwald).

By Plane

Frankfurt Airport can be reached within 20 minutes by car via freeway A5. The shuttle bus HEAG-Airliner (airport terminal 1, area B, bus stop 14 or airport terminal 2, near the exit) also provides direct transportation towards Darmstadt Central Station.

Another alternative is given by several airport taxi services. Costs are around 30 Euro (TAM-Flughafentransfer, Tel. +49 6151 44722).
